Automated Financial Systems, Inc. Announces Six New AFSVision Clients in 2022

Exton, PA, January 17, 2023—Automated Financial Systems, Inc. \(AFS®\) announced today the addition of six new clients in 2022 for AFSVision®, its next-generation lending platform. AFSVision was chosen to support our client’s growth and cloud-based strategies as they look to modernize their commercial lending lines of business while offering first-class services and products to their customers. AFS clients have consistently demonstrated strong financial performance in both revenue and efficiency.

AFSVision is designed to improve and expand upon AFS Level III’s capabilities, long considered the “gold standard” in commercial lending management across the industry for over 30 years.

This most recent group of clients continues the successful transitioning of AFS Level III™ clients to AFSVision as well as first-time partnerships.

AFSVision is an integrated single loan platform for any and all commercial lines of business. Its ability to easily integrate with and into the financial institutions ecosystem utilizing industry standard API’s supports financial institutions omnichannel strategy by promoting seamless, end-to-end processing through its unique suite of digital-enabling capabilities. AFSVision provides a globally available, unified banking experience, empowering financial institutions with 24/7, digital and mobile, real-time access allowing financial institutions to better serve their customers now and in the future.

“We are excited to continue our long-term relationships with the four AFS Level III clients that are transitioning to AFSVision, as well as welcome two new clients as we expand our reach to bring AFSVision’s modernizing, next-generation benefits to a larger audience and new markets. AFSVision is perfectly aligned with their strategic short- and long-term priorities. We’re certain AFSVision will enable these leading financial institutions to focus on their core business while streamlining processes, creating efficiencies, and enabling first class customer experiences,” said Richard Bare, CEO and President of AFS.
