Automated Financial Systems, Inc. Announces Enhanced Disaster Recovery Capabilities for AFSVision®

Exton, PA, April 11, 2023—Automated Financial Systems, Inc. \(AFS®\) is pleased to announce their latest innovative solution for clients—AFSVision Disaster Recovery as a Service (DRaaS). This enhanced service will provide AFSVision Hosted Private Cloud (HPC) clients with continuous data protection (CDP) with the following benefits:

- Improved Disaster Recovery SLAs to a 5-minute RPO and 4-hour RTO or better.
- Disaster Recovery (DR) testing can occur at any time – not just once per year.
- Production can be run out of the DR location for extended periods.
- Full cyber security, FFIEC, and Banking and Security Audit regulation compliance.

AFSVision is an integrated single loan platform for multiple commercial lines of business that has transformed how financial institutions manage commercial lending. The enhanced AFSVision DRaaS service is built on the premise of CDP, using a confluence of new technologies to make it possible to replicate complete workloads quickly and accurately to a remote location with near zero RPO without impacting the performance of the primary site.

“The whole idea of DR really comes down to making it business as usual instead of some special event,” said Rad Laney, AFS Chief Information Officer. “We’re excited to bring these enhanced disaster recovery services to our clients and the industry, providing them with the confidence that in a ‘time of need’ they will be fully supported and operational.”
